

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1893.

NO. 16

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Messrs. Joel J. Walker, J. A. and L. A. Burnside left Saturday for a 10 days' fishing trip to Cumberland river.

—Raymond Haselden & Bro. have been awarded the contract for putting the tin work on both the new buildings on the public square.

—If Garrard is going to have a fair this season, it is about time the stock men were working it up. We had one of the best fairs in the State last year.

—The local band has been engaged to play for the bicycle meet at Harrodsburg two days, June 27 and 28. All the prominent wheelmen in the State will attend and a good time is anticipated.

—A petition was filed in the county court Saturday asking that an election be ordered to take a vote on re-opening saloons in Lancaster. The case will be heard this Tuesday morning.

—The graduating class at Garrard College will consist of Miss May Zuel Hughes, Nannie McCauley, Alice Hindson, Jennie Burnside, Fannie Cochran, Lula Riffe; Messrs. O. W. Stevens and Millard West.

—Miss Soper, of Paint Lick, is visiting Mrs. W. Ward. Rev. N. Gilliam and wife, of Richmond, Ind., are visiting their old friends and relatives in Lancaster and Garrard county. Sam Joseph, one of the cleverest drummers on the road, was here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mason were in Cincinnati last week.

—The country is filled up with tramps and professional beggars. They go from town to town, invade the privacy of homes, stop business men on the street and insist on having their petitions read and demand subscriptions from the people promiscuously. Every community ought to make provisions for the comfortable maintenance of its deserving poor as well as those who are afflicted and are without the means of support, but the methods adopted by these vagabonds who are scouring the country and annoying people generally is a nuisance that ought to be abated. A man hailing from Knox county and one from Mt. Sterling have been here within the last two weeks, both of whom are undoubted humbugs.

BARBOURVILLE.

—Reports from Washington to his family here indicate that Hon. John H. Wilsod is better and now out of danger. It is thought he will be home in a short time.

—A party of young folks spent the evening quite pleasantly with Miss Annie Dishman last Thursday. Music, dancing and various games were indulged in.

—Hon. C. B. Lytle, of Manchester, is attending circuit court here this week and is special judge in the case of the commonwealth against William Smith, charged with murder, which case is set for trial Tuesday.

—Billy Hudson, whose name appears at the head of the editorial columns of The Outlook, of this place, is only 15 years old. He gets up a good newspaper for one of his age and deserves much credit for his energy and vim.

—John Y. Reynolds, Joseph Fortney and Clarence Yadon were examined for law license here last week. We have more lawyers here now than most anything else, but most of them seem to be doing very nicely and I hear no complaint.

—Hon. John M. Tinsley, our representative, came home from Frankfort Saturday morning. He said to me in reference to the re-districting of the State into new legislative districts, about the only change made in this section was the taking of Pike county from the district composed of Pike, Floyd and Johnson and making it into one district, leaving the latter two as one district.

—Judge Clark disposed of more cases on the criminal docket here last week than was ever before done in; the same length of time and at this rate the docket will soon be clear. Steve Messer was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for false swearing. The Sheltons, who were indicted for the burning of T. M. Sampson's store in November, 1891, were acquitted, though a strong case of circumstances was made out against them.

—Mr. George Owens, assistant depot agent at this place, received notice last Friday morning from Col. Jas. Blackburn of his appointment as Deputy U. S. marshal for this district. Mr. Owens was ordered to report at headquarters in Louisville at once and he left for that city Saturday night. The appointment of Mr. Owens is the source of much satisfaction to his numerous friends here. The Owens brothers have a reputation being honest, straightforward, energetic young men wherever they are known and their democracy is unquestionable.

—A Richmond newspaper expresses the hope that "a real Confederate dinner" will be served at the Memorial Bazaar. Such a spread would comprise "rye coffee," "slap-jacks," sorghum, Nacau pork, rice soup, potato pie and other delicacies that pleased the palates of the boys when they got big boxes from home.

DANVILLE.

—Judge T. Z. Morrow, who is always among friends when in Danville, was here Friday and Saturday.

—It is thought the frost Sunday night killed nearly everything capable of being killed in that way.

—James Whitcomb Riley, the tract poet of modern times, will give a reading here Tuesday, 25th inst.

—The capital removal committee, which was here all day Friday, made no rash promises, but expressed itself as delighted with Danville and its surroundings and with the hospitable reception given it. Stand from under, Louisville, Lexington et al.—Danville will surprise you in this matter.

—"A fiend in human shape" brought two small drinks of whiskey from Harrodsburg or somewhere else and made Jim Carter and Sam Wesley drink 'em when they didn't want to. The drinks made Jim and Sam so boisterous that their bill in the police court Monday morning was $7.30 each.

—The Calloun (Florida) News, of the 15th inst., contains mention of the brilliant wedding of Miss Lena Taylor and Mr. Richmond S. Shipley, both of Wewahatcha, Fla. The bride's mother, Mrs. E. Z. Taylor, was formerly Miss Emma Spears, of Danville. One of the bridesmaids was Miss Fannie Spears, of Lincoln county, a first cousin of the bride.

—Circuit Court.—Eli McAnally, the witness in the Eugene Owens case, who disobeyed a subpoena, was sent to jail Friday by Judge Sandley for 30 days in default of paying a $30 fine. Jo Goings has been indicted for maliciously shooting Tom Bogy. The facts in the case are, as claimed by the defense, that Milford Barbour threatened to kill Goings and started out after him. Goings thought he saw him coming back (it was night), fired and shot Tom Bogy, a personal friend. Bogy has about recovered. Mame Harris, colored, has been indicted four times for selling whiskey. Five judgments of $100 each were entered against Mattie Kirtley for selling whiskey. These were afterwards set aside when four of them were dismissed and one continued until next term. Jo Goings was fined $50 for giving a minor whiskey and $100 for selling Ike Hayden, an adult, the same exhilarating drink. Eugene Owens, the small boy, whose case has often been referred to, was given two years in the penitentiary. Gano Blevins, the boy killed, and Owens were each about the same age, 13 years, at the time of the killing. It is hoped that Governor Brown will give this little fellow one more chance and not permit him to go where he would be irretrievably ruined.

—John Cale, of Covington, Va., to prevent his daughter from eloping with a man he did not like, chained the young lady to the floor and kept her there two weeks, when the authorities heard of it and released her.

—At Long Run, this State, a little 5-year-old boy attempted to catch a young pig. The mother jumped onto him and began tearing him with her tusks about the face till the child was mangled beyond recognition.

—Mrs. Nellie Rannels, of Ohio City, O., playfully pointed the handle of a pistol at a lady friend, the barrel being turned toward herself. The pistol was discharged and the ball lodged in her left lung, killing her.

—Everything in Middleboro seems to be going into the hands of a receiver. The latest is the Middleboro Hotel Co., valued at $200,000. It will continue to run, as before, under the management of B. F. Wilson, late of Louisville.

ARE YOU GOING?—If so get posted ahead and go the best way. The World's Fair opens May 1, and from the South and Southern Ohio, the route via C. H. & D. offers the most advantages both in comfort and points of interest. The C. H. & D. in connection with the Monon is the only line running Pullman vestibule trains with dining-cars between Cincinnati and Chicago. The unequalled service of this route has earned for it the title of the "World's Fair Route." Purchase tickets via the C. H. & D. For rates, and full information call on or address any C. H. & D. agent or E. O. McCormick, G. P. & T. Agt., "World's Fair Route," 200 W. 4th Street, Cincinnati, O. Send 20 cents in stamps to the latter address and receive a panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of buildings, etc.

Easy to take.—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Smallest, easiest, cheapest, best. They're tiny, sugar-coated, antibilious granules, a compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts. Without disturbance or trouble, Constipation, Indigestion, Biliary Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headaches and all derangements of liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved and cured. Permanently cured, too. By their mild and natural action, these little Pellets lead the system into natural ways again. Their influence lasts.

Everything catarrhal in its nature, catarrh itself and all the troubles that come from catarrh, are perfectly and permanently cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy. No matter how bad your case or how long standing you can be cured.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. E. J. Willis will preach at Turnersville next Sunday at 11 A. M.

—The Sunday Observers are called to meet in convention at Louisville May 2d and 3d.

—Rev. Thomas E. Gailor, of Sewanee, was unanimously elected assistant Bishop of the Episcopal church in Tennessee by the Diocesan Convention.

—Rev. I. S. McElroy's meeting at Paris has closed. The local papers speak in high praise of his efforts, which were rewarded with 15 accessions to the fold.

—The Rev. Zephaniah Meek, editor of the Central Methodist at Catlettsburg, has been appointed and confirmed a World's Fair commissioner from Kentucky.

—Mr. Graham Frank, who used to clerk in the Louisville Store here, preached at the Christian church Sunday night to a large audience and acquitted himself most creditably. He is studying for the ministry at Bible College.

—Rev. W. A. Slaymaker began a series of sermons Sunday night on the "Science of Religion." His first was from the text, "In the beginning God created the Heaven and the earth, Gen. 1:1, and was a learned and instructive effort. It will pay you to hear the services.

—Rev. Ben Helm's meeting at Pittsburg closed Friday night with a general awakening of christians and over 170 confessions, 84 of whom united with the church, and 12 to 20 have signified their purpose of uniting with the other churches, there—Methodist, Baptist and Reform. A Christian Endeavor Society was organized and cottage prayer meetings will be held in each section of the town. Mr. Helm seems to have at last found his life work. As an evangelist he is meeting with glorious success.

—An interesting service was held by Rev. W. A. Slaymaker at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon to prepare for the coming of Rev. H. E. Rose, State secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who will arrive next Saturday for the purpose of effecting an organization. His first meeting will be held at the Methodist church at 7:30 Saturday night. Sunday at 3 P. M. there will be a mass meeting at the Baptist church and at 7:30 all the churches will unite with him in a service at the Christian church. Young men, whether they are church members or not, are invited to attend these meetings and to unite with the association, which is a power for good in the land. It is hoped that a branch can be established here that will prove the banner one of the State.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

The frost Sunday night killed everything in the way of fruit in this section.

—Jerry Ketchum was brought before County Judge Barnett, last week, and fined $50 for selling liquor at Pittsburg.

—Deputy Collector C. M. Randall cut up an illicit still, supposed to belong to one Jim Steele, about three miles west of Corbin.

—Scott Farris, the horse trainer is here. Mr. Hugh Harrison, the "Bull Dog" jeans pants drummer, is seriously sick at the Catching House.

—Mr. John A. Bosley, formerly of Stanford, and who was appointed "Under Cleveland's first administration, has resigned as a postal clerk, his resignation to take effect May 1. He has secured a good position at Indianapolis.

—Mr. W. P. Baker, who has been the local and general news editor of the Echo for some time, is no longer with that paper. Mr. Baker made a splendid local and I don't see how the Echo will get along without him.

—J. N. Robinson has a fine new baby boy at his house and his name will probably be Grover. J. Dan Pitman would not be beat by Mr. Robinson and Saturday night a 12-pound boy also arrived, crying for the same name.

—Marriage licenses have been issued since April 16th to the following parties: L. E. Pike to Martha Spears; Samuel Von Kirnal to Alice Von Kirnal; James Barrett and Linie Barrett; John Davis to Martha Bucklee; A. R. Taylor to Liza A. Brock.

—C. M. Randall was at Ely's, on the Cumberland, several days ago and brought home with him a string of seven bass that were beautiful to sportsman's eye and made everybody's mouth water that looked at them. One of them weighed 4 pounds and 11 ounces and the others on down to two pounds.

LIBERTY.

—Married, on the 19th, by Elder J. Q. Montgomery, at the residence of the bride's father. D. F. Humphrey, Mr. James Riggins, of Dunnville, to Miss Mollie Humphrey.

—Boyle and George Stone set a new hoop net a few days since and caught nine fine fish the first time it was taken up. Boyle grumbled about our report of his six-inch minnows in our last. Well, I was certain they were at least six inches long and I didn't know how much longer as I didn't have time to measure them.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—The widow of Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock died in New York Thursday night, after a lingering illness.

—Mrs. Mack McKenzie, who was a daughter of Mr. L. G. Gooch, of Waynesburg, died Saturday afternoon, after an illness of two weeks with pneumonia. She leaves, besides a husband, two small children, who will severely feel a mother's loss. Her remains were laid to rest yesterday at Double Springs cemetery, near Waynesburg.

—After an illness of ten long weeks, during which his parents and friends had to sit up with him every night, Charles Fowler breathed his last at 5 P. M. Sunday, aged 25. He was the son of Dr. and Mrs. Clifton Fowler and those who knew him best say he was a most exemplary young man. He was an engineer by trade and his room-mate at Junction City and others tell us that he was never known to swear an oath or take a drink while there. He was a member of the Baptist church here and his pastor, Rev. A. V. Sizemore, spoke highly of him and said many comforting words to the bereaved at the grave in Buffalo Cemetery last afternoon. It is hard on the father and mother to lose their pride, an only son and first born, but they know to whom to look for consolation, in the hour of their great affliction. It is pleasant to feel that sympathizing friends unite in our sorrows, but God alone can give comfort, for He has promised That He will be with us our troubles to bless. And sanctify to us our deepest distress.

—After an illness of several months' duration, Capt. James W. Carter died at his home at Rowland Friday morning, aged about 50 years. He leaves a wife and six children, all grown but two, to feel the loss of a kind husband and loving father. Capt. Carter had been with the L. & N. since 1866, for the most of the time as conductor, and no man on the road stood higher or had more friends. Last year he professed religion under the preaching of Rev. Ben Helm and united with the Christian church and seemed to be truly an accepted child of God. Capt. Carter was a faithful Odd Fellow and he was buried by the lodge here with its honors, after a sermon at the Christian church by Rev. W. E. Ellis. A large number of railroad and other friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Buffalo Cemetery.

One by one we cross the river. James W. Carter, for the past twenty years employed on the south end of the Knoxville Division of the L. & N. R. R. as a freight conductor, died at his home in Rowland Friday morning. "Uncle Jimmy," as he was familiarly called, had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances among railroad men, all of whom will read this announcement with a sigh. He possessed a quaint humor that his friends enjoyed and the stations Artemus and Shawnee, which he dubbed "Nicodemus" and "Cheyenne," will serve to pleasantly recall him. Yes, "Uncle Jimmy," we will keep you tenderly in mind, remembering your joys and sorrows, and now that the book of life is closed, a kind Providence will see that all errors are carefully checked and your reward will be bountiful. As we look upon your closed eyes and folded hands we close up the gap made vacant by your loss and we receive an imprint of sadness that dictates a better feeling to our fellow man. We will greet one another more kindly as the procession continues on its journey and patiently await our turn.

BY ONE OF HIS FRIENDS.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—There are in this country 3,000,000 persons over 30 years of age who have never been married and most of them never will be.

—Davis Levin, a widower of 35, and a peddler by trade, and Miss Eliza Laco-witz, a pretty German girl of the Ottenheim section, were married at the courthouse Saturday.

—Miss Sallie Moore, of Circleville, O., and W. G. Burress, of Kansas, who have corresponded for years, were married at the bride's home, notwithstanding they had never met till a few days before the ceremony. Immediately after the knot was tied the husband returned to his Western home and the wife resumed her duties as teacher. They did not state when they would again meet.

—Mrs. Duke Smith has been granted a divorce at Sioux Falls, S. D., from her husband, who is a son of Gen. Green Clay Smith. She was Gertrude Dahl, of New York, and they lived together three years, when owing to incompatibility of temper and failure to support her on the plan she demanded, she left him and went to Sioux Falls. There are no children.

—Three feet of snow fell in some parts of Minnesota Thursday and great damage was done to growing crops. Damaging snows also fell in Iowa, Missouri and Illinois.

—A poplar tree 9 feet in diameter and 60 feet to the first limb was cut in Monroe county and a section, says the Columbia Spectator, will be sent to the World's Fair.

EVERY FRIDAY.

The naval display in Hampton Roads, the beautiful and peaceful expanse of water off the Virginia coast, presented a grand spectacle which was enjoyed by thousands of spectators, including many handsome women, over which the dispatches tell us the Jolly Jack Tars went wild. The warships of several nations are there and when with their colors up belched forth their thunder of salutes to the three little Columbus caravels the Santa Maria, the Nina and the Pinta, in tow of three Spanish war ships, the excitement and enthusiasm knew no bounds. The scene was in striking contrast to the one presented on the same waters 31 years ago March 9th, when the Merrimack and the Monitor, manned by men of a common country, met in deadly conflict to last till one of them went down, proud even though vanquished. The present display is peculiarly gratifying, showing as it does, the pleasant relations that exist between the United States and the other great nations of the earth. May peace continue to spread her mantle over the earth and make this the beginning of the time when nations shall learn war no more.

The wife of a naval officer at Fortress Monroe wanted to visit the warships in her new crinoline skirts, but the wind was blowing a gale and she had no particular desire to make an undue display of her hosiery, even if it was of the latest design and texture, and covered as pretty a limb as ever served to support the female form divine. For awhile she was in a quandary, but a happy thought struck her like an inspiration and she adopted it. It was to put shot in the seams at the bottom of the skirt, and although the wind blew a hurricane, she promenaded the decks with a happy consciousness that if her skirts went up she would go too. They say women never invent anything, but it must be admitted that they are very fruitful of resources.

The most outrageous performances of a hazing party at the Ohio Wesleyan University has caused great indignation and the participants are threatened with summary punishment if their names are disclosed. A number of young men had their faces disfigured for life by being branded in fantastic figures with a strong solution of nitrate of silver and 17 young women attending the same school had their necks, breasts, arms and hands burned and scarred, so that they would be unable to wear evening dress at the reception of the seniors, against whom there is a grievance. The young fiends should have their lawless careers nipped in the bud by well adjusted hempen neckties, though that would hardly atone for such atrocities.

The legislature has been in session almost since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. Pages have grown into manhood, we are told, and have taken to themselves wives, but the Frankfort Argus says this is not all. Several members have married and had heirs born to them since the session opened. This marrying and giving in marriage, this drinking and being merry will continue till the lords of those servants will come on a day when they looketh not for him and in an hour when they are not aware and cut them asunder. Let them take heed and beware of the day of wrath that is fast approaching. Adjourn now and all will be forgiven.

SECRETARY CARLISLE says that the purpose of the government to preserve its credit and maintain the parity of gold and silver will not be abandoned under any circumstances. This statement is made in view of the strained financial situation, caused by the heavy withdrawal of gold. He says the stock of this metal amounts to about $740,000,000 and calls upon all who are interested in maintaining a stable currency to assist him to the extent of their ability to end the present difficulties.

SATURDAY was the 49th day of the present administration and was remarkable from the fact that not an application for office was filed at the treasury department from Kentucky. As previous to that the applications had been filed at the rate of two to 25 a day, this sudden let up is alarming. Surely the crop of patriots anxious to serve their country has not been nipped in the bud by the frosts of this miserable dogwood winter.

AFTER the court had thrown out a number of items in the bill of the State against the Mason & Ford Co., which were barred by limitation, the attorney general announced that the Commonwealth was not ready to try the case this term. To a man up a tree it would certainly seem that he has had time enough and to spare to get ready. He must have the spring fever.

Although nearly three decades have elapsed since the peace of Appomattox, there are still 162 of the 498 general officers of the Confederacy surviving.

E. L. HARPER, who put the Fidelity Bank at Cincinnati in the hole for over a million dollars and was sent to the penitentiary for ten years for it, shows that he would be able to take care of himself if dropped into the middle of the Sahara Desert. Since his incarceration he has devoted his spare time to raising canary birds and his cell has been kept filled with these little songsters. With the money derived from their sale he has been able to keep himself supplied with other than prison food, besides laying up several hundreds of dollars to begin life with again on May 1, at which time he will breathe the air of freedom once more, one of the last official acts of President Harrison having been to pardon him.

TOM WATSON, the Georgia Congressman who got left at the last election, has come out for governor. He is the populist who became famous on account of his question, "Where am I at?" It will not take much of a prophet to anoint him, if he persists in his candidacy. In the consomme will be the universal response.

Legislative.

The Senate refused to concur in the House bill to make the annual per capita for lunatic $150, but presented a substitute fixing it at $145. It is $135 now.

The bill to appropriate money for an encampment of the State Guard at the World's Fair was again defeated in the Senate, so if the boys go to the show it will be one at a time and on their own expense.

Mr. Kincheloe has introduced an act which provides that whoever shall, under promise of marriage, seduce and have carnal knowledge of any female under 16 years of age, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years.

Cows.—Two high-grade Jerseys for sale; one fresh with fine heifer calf, the other soon to calve. A. G. Huffman.

Sontag Mohawk, the great brood mare, at Palo Alto stock farm, has had 7 colts to enter the 190 list. She is now in foal to Palo Alto.

Fourteen laborers stationed in a pump house on the shore of Lake Michigan met death by the building being blown into the lake.

Levi Myers and son, who recently moved to the J. H. Miller farm from Wayne, have finished planting 75 acres of corn, the first to finish this season.

J. V. Cook, of Garrard, sold to Rabenstein & Harris 32 head of New York cattle at 5 cents. They are to be delivered between July 15 and August 15.

B. L. Kelly bought of E. W. Lawless 50 stock hogs at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4c. Guiley & Son have bought in this county a large lot of lambs at $4 to $125.—Record-Homestead.

Wool WANTED.—Bring me your wool and get the highest market price. I want it and will buy it if you will give me an opportunity. Wm. Moreland, Stanford, Ky.

The fixing of the distance at 75 yards when the field consists of eight or fewer starters and 100 yards when more than eight start, has met with the approval of all of the prominent drivers.

J. D. Rockefeller, the millionaire, has mated his beautiful Virginia Evans, 2:15 1/2, with the gray gelding, So Long, 2:13 1/2, and expects to beat the double team record with the pair this season.

B. G. Fox sold for J. K. Baughman, of Hustonville, to Stack, of Whiteville, this State, a 3-year old jack for $525. W. Rue sold to W. C. Rogers, of Lebanon, a pair of harness horses for $400.—Advocate.

The Connecticut Legislature has passed an ironclad act against pool selling and even so strong an association as Charter Oak Park can hardly hope to pay expenses unless it can take toll from the pools.

Michigan has ten stallions with records below 2:20, as follows: Monbars, 2:11 1/2; Coraloid, 2:13 1/2; Summocolon, 2:13 1/2; Alcyon, 2:15; George St. Clair, 2:15 1/2; Pontiac Chief, 2:16 1/2; Enright, 2:18; Lee's Pilot, 2:19; Antevolo, 2:19 1/2; Latitude, 2:19 1/2.

A fairly good crowd attended court at Lancaster yesterday, but it was a very dull day generally. About 100 cattle on the market. (Mountain cattle brought 2 to 2 1/2c; butcher stuff 2 1/2 to 3c. Several plug horses changed hands at $28 to $40. No mules offered.

Gen. Jackson, who sold a half interest in the Belle Meade stock farm in Tennessee, to Richard Crocker for $265,000, is a brother of Justice Jackson, of the United States Supreme Court. The judge at one time owned an interest in the farm, but gave it up when elected to the bench.

A fairly good crowd was present at the horse show at McKinney Saturday afternoon and the equines that were exhibited were of a very superior class. The following were shown: Belmont Chief by J. P. Crow; Sentinel by George Alford; Prince Denmark by E. C. Dunn; Braumont and two jacks by J. W. Givens; Silver Tip by Beazley Bros. & Hays; Eureka Chief by Sandridge & Huston and Eagle Bird by E. D. Kennedy.

Come and examine our tailor-made wraps and capes, our Zouave and Bolero jackets, our tan shoes for gents in Blochers and Oxfords, our Bluchers and Oxfords for ladies in tan and French kid, our comprehensive stock of carpets in moquettes, Wilton velvets, body Brussels, tapestry, ingrains, extra-supers in all wool, wool mixed, cotton chins and all cotton, representing a $100,000 stock, and we have them cut without waste to the buyer. Examine ours before buying. Hughes & Tate.

Elder J. H. Baker, of Lexington, editor of the Educational Herald, is here soliciting subscriptions. The Herald is printed at Grayson and is devoted to the college enterprise there. The purpose is to erect a $25,000 college building at Grayson. Mr. Baker preached at Turnersville Sunday to a good audience.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MISS MARY WARREN is bedfast with rheumatism.

MR. AND MRS. MARK HARRIS are visiting relatives in Danville.

A. T. NUNNELLY, the bustling drummer, was here again yesterday.

MRS. S. W. PETTIBONE, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Flowers.

Mrs. EPH PENNINGTON, of Middlesboro, spent several days here with friends.

MISS MATTIE ECHANKS and Annie White paid this office a call yesterday.

MISS SARAH HAYS, of Lexington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Pauline Hays.

Mrs. R. H. BRUNSON, of Crab Orchard, is the guest of Mrs. G. W. Bronaugh.

MISS MESSIE RUPLEY left yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. Dr. Hourigan, in Marion.

MR. AND MRS. JOE HARDIN, of Corbin, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Caldwell.

MR. WILLIAM BAUGHMAN, of Bryantville, has been visiting his nephew, Mr. S. H. Shanks.

DR. J. G. CARPENTER has secured for Miss Jocetta Engleman a position as nurse in a Philadelphia hospital.

MISS ALICE MOORE, of Crab Orchard, who has been the guest of Mrs. Scott Farris, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. LAURA RICK and Mrs. A. S. Doyle, of Shelbyville, will arrive Wednesday to be guests of Mrs. B. W. Gaines.

MR. M. C. WILLIAMS, of Mt. Vernon, passed down to Russellville, Tuesday, to join his wife, who is visiting relatives there.

C. W. METCALF, Esq., of Pineville, was here Saturday en route to Nicholasville, to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Metcalf.

MR. J. M. McROBERTS, JR., has been appointed storekeeper and gauger and has been assigned to duty at Traylor's distillery.

MR. WILL J. YACKE, of Louisville, is here again and every one who knows what draws him pronounces him a man of exceeding great taste.

JAMES C. ENGLISHMAN was among the several boys who answered Mr. R. H. Danks' advertisement for a boy to learn watchmaking and he was engaged.

Mrs. H. J. McROBERTS was too ill to fill her place at the organ at the Presbyterian church Sunday and Miss Nellie Slaymaker very gracefully and acceptably presided.

MISS FOXIE PENNINGTON leaves on Monday for a month's visit in Danville. Miss Foxie's departure will create a melancholy vacancy in the young society of Middlesboro.—News.

MR. AND MRS. SCOTT FARRIS, who moved to this place from Crab Orchard less than a month ago, will move back to that town to-morrow; not that they like Stanford less, but Crab Orchard more.

MR. MATT D. CROW, of Pueblo, Col., is visiting his brothers, Messrs. D. J., R. H. and C. L. Crow, of this county. It has been a number of years since Mr. Crow visited the scenes of his boyhood.

MR. C. J. THOMPSON, general foreman at Rowland, has been offered the position of superintendent of construction of the Chicago Elevated Railway and will leave in a few days for the Windy City to see about accepting it.

A FRIEND in Springfield, Ill., writes that Sam Burdett, formerly of the Courier-Journal staff, is there reporting the legislature for the Chicago Herald. He is the same generous Sam of old and always has a warm greeting for any Kentuckian.—Louisville Times.

AMONG the many artists that Stanford has, Miss Pearl Burnside is a star. For one so young, her execution is simply wonderful, and while she makes no pretensions whatever, her work cannot be excelled—age taken into consideration.—Stanford cor. Harrodsburg Sayings.

THE Louisville Critic says that the beautiful Miss Mattie Thompson still lingers at Los Angeles, Cal., with the hope of regaining her health. She has been threatened with lung trouble and has been very ill. It is rumored that she is engaged to Mr. Davis, brother-in-law of Editor Pulitzer, of the New York World, and the rumor has been strengthened by a visit from him.

CITY AND VICINITY.

"LOCAL rains, warmer Tuesday," said the signal service dispatch last evening.

M. A. WATKINS has been appointed postmaster at East Bernstadt, J. H. Lee, at Lily, Mrs. E. L. Siler at Pleasant View and Mrs. Sarah E. Creeknore at Rockhold.

AN autopsy was held on the body of Charley Fowler yesterday by Drs. Brown, Hunn, Cartwright, O'Bannon, Bronaugh, Jasper, Humphrey and Cook. They found the liver and spleen enlarged considerably and tubercular deposits in both of them. As to the nature of the deposits the doctors are undecided and will not say until the microscope is used.

WANTED.—Eggs. Will pay 15 cts. B. F. Jones & Son.

LITTLE PERSONAL.—Born, to the wife of Newt Gill, a boy.

THE south-bound passenger train killed a Jersey cow belonging to Mack Bruce, in the town limits, Saturday afternoon, which has been valued at $50.

A THIEF entered the room of Prof. and Mrs. B. F. Johnson and stole a pocket-book containing $11 from a drawer. The book was afterwards found near the stable, minus the money.

THE Macahees have rented the Odd Fellows hall for two meeting nights in each month—the 2d and 4th Wednesday nights. The charter has arrived and everything is now in beautiful working order.

It is said that no Kentuckian ever reaches the full measure of his ambition till a stud horse is named for him. Judge Sanley is now sitting on the pinnacle. Pettus & King, of the East End, have named their fine red sorrel Mike Sanley in his honor.

STANFORD is one of the quietest and most orderly towns in the United States. A reporter had occasion to pass nearly the whole length of Main street the other night and not a single soul did he see outside of houses, although it was at the comparatively early hour of 10.30.

THE Louisville Common Pleas Court awarded Mrs. Belle Miller $5,000 damages for killing her husband. She sued for $35,000 and Mr. C. C. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, was one of her attorneys. Mr. Miller was an express messenger and was killed in an L. & N. wreck at Hazel Patch, Laurel county.

THE unpleasant news comes from Memphis that John Wesley Durham, late of Danville, is under arrest on a charge of embezzlement. The claim is that he collected a fee and kept it, giving his worthless check to his client, when she finally got him to the point of settling. Mr. Durham was attorney general under appointment of the notorious Judge DuBose.

THIS cat is no slouch of a fiddler herself, but if you want to hear a fiddle talk, go to Walton's Opera House next Monday night, May 1st, and Miss Flora Drescher, of the New York Stars, will give you that pleasure. The instrument she uses was made in 1646. She hasn't been using it all that time herself but you would think so, so perfect is her manipulation of the bow.

THE Lexington Press says that the Commonwealth cases against John R. Farris for injuring private property and the unlawful taking of Victor Maxzone, the paper, were decided by County Judge Birkbeck Saturday. Mr. Farris was fined $25 and costs on the former charge and dismissed on the latter, the judge deciding that as he had charge of the horse in the first place his removing him was not a misdemeanor. Mr. Farris will probably appeal the former case to the circuit court.

IN the case of Higginbotham vs. the L. & N. railroad, the superior court in affirming the award of $1,000 damages, holds that it was not improper to instruct the jury that if they believed from the evidence that those in charge of the engine failed to give "timely warning" of its approach by ringing the bell, such failure was negligence upon their part. The term "timely warning" was sufficiently specific as to the time when or place where the signal should have been given.

IN view of the fact that warm weather is approaching and there is a possibility of an invasion of cholera, the board of health for Lincoln county, Drs. Steele Bailey, J. G. Carpenter and Hawkins Brown, have had a large number of notices printed for householders to clean and disinfect their premises. No decent man will make it necessary for such a notice to be sent him, but will do all in his power to prevent the coming of the scourge. Failure to clean up after being notified subjects one to a fine of not less than $100. It ought to be $1,000 and a long term in jail.

CHENKID.—Peter Ward, brakeman on freight No. 27, Capt. Conniff conductor, got his foot hung in the track at Loretto Saturday and a freight car, which had been run out from the side track, passed over him, crushing both legs to a pulp. The shock was so great that he never rallied and in four hours he was a corpse. He was about 25 years of age and leaves a wife and child, who live in Knoxville, to which place his body was taken for interment. His comrades say he claimed to have a presentiment that he would be killed and that he talked about it as if it was a fixed fact.

THE republican papers are trying hard to produce the impression that strained relations exist between President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle over the issue of bonds. They claim that the president said to the secretary, "You shall issue bonds" and that he replied, "If you want bonds issued you must get another secretary of the treasury." Of course this is the merest bosh. Reliable information is to the effect that the most cordial relations exist between the two distinguished gentlemen and that they are in perfect accord on the financial and other situations.

THE Farmers Bank and Trust Co. and W. H. Warren & Co. are preparing to light the sun's rays, if they ever get warm enough, by putting up nice awnings.

A DISPATCH from Richmond says that Wm. Henry killed Wm. Kennedy's face with a buckshot when he persisted in visiting his sister against his wishes. Kennedy returned the shot without effect and was able to get away, but it is thought he will die.

AN editor ought to be a man without heart and without feeling. He often has to "kill" the jnicest of his items to oblige somebody who does not wish to see his name in print in certain connections. We have been worked again. Hinc illae lacrimae.

THE fountain has arrived and the work of setting it in position will be commenced to-day. It weighs about 2,500 pounds and is a beauty. It will more than likely be placed in the walk from Main street to the court-house door, it being undoubtedly the most appropriate place.

TWO obstreperous individuals named J. F. King and W. Downs, who were arrested Saturday for flourishing their pistols around town, were tried yesterday and given 10 days in jail and fined $25 each, after having spent the Sabbath in the calaboose meditating on the vanities of life.

A FINE girl entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Coffey, of the McKinney section, last week. The young lady is the 15th child and Mr. Coffey is but 43 years old. His grandfather had 29 children. Mr. Coffey is doing his level best for the republican party, for which he is a hard worker.

B. H. DANKS, the energetic and bustling jeweler, had an immense business Friday, when he celebrated the first anniversary of his business career in Stanford. His offer to give a handsome souvenir spoon to each customer was a great drawing card and 45 of them were given away. Mr. Danks is an advertiser from away back.

DONWOOD winter fingers with us, the weather having been very disagreeable for a week or more. A heavy frost showed itself yesterday and led formed to a considerable thickness in localities. All of the tenderer buds and vegetables are badly nipped and it is feared that most of the fruit is killed. Reports from other sections are even worse than here.

THE Advocate says that "Little Britain" threw her gates wide open to the capital committee of the General Assembly and showed to those gentlemen the finest little city in all Kentucky; an ideal place for the capital, admirably located and in every way desirable. Danville is a nice little town and we should like to see her get the capital, but a snowball in sheet stands more show than she.

SOME 30 ladies, the mothers, wives, widows, daughters and sisters of Masons, and 20 gentlemen, took the Eastern Star degree at Odd Fellows' Hall Saturday afternoon and all seemed well pleased, albeit some of the ladies were disappointed that the goat was not brought out and all the secrets of the A. Y. M. divulged for their delectation. Judge W. L. Brown, of London, conferred the degree and gave a lengthy and entertaining lecture on it.

LOW RATES.—On account of the State encampment of the G. A. R. at Owensboro all L. & N. agents will to-day sell tickets to that city or to Louisville at one fare for the round-trip, tickets good returning April 30th, and on account of National Convention Republican League Clubs tickets will be sold at 14 fares to Louisville and return, tickets on sale May 10th to 13th. On May 14th to 17th inclusive tickets to Glasgow Junction will be sold at one fare for the round-trip, with $1.20 added for round trip from Glasgow Junction to Mammoth Cave, good returning May 21st, on account of the 4th annual Conclave of Knights Templar of Kentucky at Mammoth Cave May 17th and 18th. The round-trip rate from Junction City to Mammoth Cave will be $4.98; from Stanford it will be $5.25. W. W. Penn, T. P. A., L. & N., Junction City.

JOE HALE, who formerly owned Hale's Well, filled up with whisky Sunday and went on the war path. He and Jim Farmer passed the house of Ansel Baugh and one of them shot at it. Afterwards they went to Neal's Creek and Hale raised a disturbance in church by kicking a boy and swearing at the top of his voice. Yesterday he and Farmer met Baugh and Baugh asked them why they shot at his house. Mose Berry had said he saw Farmer shoot and Hale declared he was a d—n liar. They went on and returned shortly and sent for Berry, who reiterated that Farmer had done the shooting. Farmer called him a liar and Berry struck him on the head with a hoe, laying him out and he was unconscious at last reports. Then Hale opened up a fusillade on Berry and shot at him several times, fortunately without effect. Dink Farmer, an officer, ran to the scene, when Hale drew his pistol on him. Farmer ordered him to desist and when he refused fired his Winchester. Then Hale took to his heels and is still at large. A warrant has been issued and the sheriff will no doubt harness him to-day.

FAIR.—At the meeting of the Fair directors Saturday S. M. Owens, P. W. Green and I. M. Bruce were appointed a committee on amusements and grounds; P. W. Green, R. L. Hubble, A. E. Huddle, T. C. Yager and J. T. Embury on programming; E. C. Walton, J. T. Embury and W. H. Shanks on music and amusement privileges; J. S. Owsley, Sr., W. H. Shanks and J. T. Embury on advertising and W. H. Shanks, R. L. Hubble, B. B. King, A. M. Pence, T. L. Shelton, P. W. Green and S. M. Owens to solicit special premiums. The committee to arrange programme is to meet on the 26. No complimentary will be issued. Badges will pass officers in and others entitled to admission will be given a written permit. The boys are going to work in earnest and everything points to a successful exhibition.

THE PRINCESS.—The following programme will be rendered by the young ladies of the V. A. M. Society and Miss Summers' elocution class at Walton's Opera House, Thursday, April 27, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m.

THE PRINCESS.

Dramatis Personae.

Prince.....Miss Essie Barch
Princess.....Miss Laura McAnally
Lady Blanche.....Miss Flora Ballou
Lady Psyche.....Miss Jennie Summers
King Gama.....Miss Susan Baughman
Florian.....Miss Mary Bruce
Cyril.....Miss Mattie Hopper
Ipsi.....Miss Glenn Bibb
Melissa.....Miss Ethyl Beasley
Violet.....Miss Nora Moreland
Pupils, Attendants, Courtiers, etc., the classes.

Following is a synopsis of scenes and incidents:

Scene I—A grove where the Prince relates to Florian and Cyril the story of his hopeless love for the Princess.

Scene II—The Court of King Gama, Princess Ida's father. The Prince demands Ida's hand in fulfillment of an early marriage contract.

III—The school founded by the Princess for "The Higher Education of Woman." Prince, Florian and Cyril enter, disguised as girls, and join Lady Psyche's class.

IV—School room; Lady Psyche lectures the pupils. After her classes are dismissed, she summons the new pupils to her side and recognizes in Florian her brother, in Cyril her lover, and in the Prince a countryman. Through the help of Melissa, Lady Blanche's daughter, they are shielded from detection.

V—Corridor of the University. Prince, Florian and Cyril discuss the ability of woman as compared with man. Lady Blanche discovers that the new pupils are men.

VI—A walk over the hills. Through the rollicking song of Cyril, the Princess discovers that men have entered her school in disguise, regardless of the inscription over the gate: "Let no man enter here on pain of death." A general panic follows among the girls; war ensues between the fathers of the Prince and princess. The Prince is supposed to be slain and the Princess repents her cruel measures.

Then the theory of "Higher Education" and "Woman's Rights" are laid aside and the Prince weds the Princess, Lady Psyche Cyril, and Florian Melissa, while Lady Blanche, a jealous widow, finds her plans all baffled by Love.

SONG.

He Was a Prince.....Jennie Summers.

FINAL TABLEAU.

The music will be furnished by the Stanford Gold Band, which is making special preparations for the event.

Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Hail covered the ground to quite a depth Friday and it looked for awhile like we were to have a heavy storm of wind, but it passed over in a few moments, and the sun again shone as brightly as if no cloud ever dimmed it.

—Mr. Dwight Hardin left last Thursday to accept a lucrative position in Bristol, Tenn. Dwight is a genial, clever fellow, true-hearted and generous to a fault. He will do credit to his employer and we wish him much success in his new home.

—Mrs. Scott Farris was here this week looking for a house preparatory to moving home again. It was with reluctance we gave her her up to become a resident of your city, and we are glad she finds it to her interest to again pitch her tent in the best old town in the State.

—The little baby of Mrs. Jas. Burch died last Monday and was buried the same day in the cemetery. After weeks of patient suffering she was called to Heaven to mingle with many little souls gone before, and may God temper the blow to the parents as He alone can.

—Miss Ada Gover's marriage was quite a surprise to her many friends, who unite with me in wishing for her a bright future, with just enough care to keep her from forgetting God. We will miss her in the Sunday-school, of which she was an excellent member, and her place in our social circle will be hard to fill.

—Tim Buchanan, a negro of this place, was arrested and placed in your jail on the charge of having killed the mule spoken of some time since. We understand there will be an effort to bail him out. He was a frequenter of the saloons, but considered harmless, not at all revengeful, and some think him innocent of this act.

—We understand that a couple of men who have traveled all over the world had been here for two days getting ready to give us a lecture, but our medical waters (?) quite overcame their nerves and they were even seen to stagger on the streets. We passed one hunting for our college, but he was so twisted by the wind that when he got opposite the building he was searching for, his head was in such a whirl he could not see it, and the last we saw of him late in the evening he was going down towards Flax' Creek at the same unsteady pace. If his lecture is half as amusing as his appearance, all who failed to attend missed a sure enough treat.

—Mrs. Newland, our L. & N. agent, had Mr. Hardy, the saloonist at Vanderpool's, arrested for abusive language to her. We failed to learn the particulars, but Hardy was fined $10 and costs. A large crowd of ladies attended the trial, showing by their presence their deep sympathy with Mrs. Newland. She has striven hard during her widowhood to support her little family and her long stay as agent shows the regard the company has for her. If she had had some one in the office to protect her it would have looked better in him to have made this attack, but she was alone. We understand Hardy took an appeal and that the case will be tried in your town. If so, we hope the dear women will attend in a body and show their feeling for innocent women in distress. She has the warmest sympathy of every lady in our vicinity.

The Unrivalled Climate of New Mexico.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 18, 1893.

In a short letter to your paper, written about a month ago, I stated that the chief attraction of this country was its climate, and I think the hundreds of Eastern and Northern people, who have been sojourning here through the winter that has just passed, will all endorse the statement. The season has been one of unusual severity in nearly all parts of the country, and all over the world, for that matter, but no reasonable person could ask for nicer weather than we have had here all winter through. There has not been a day that the sun didn't shine and except a half dozen rough, blustering days, such as are common in other sections during March, the weather has been pleasant all the time, and mild enough for invalids to take exercise in the open air with comfort every day. In fact, there has been no weather during the season that the people of your section would consider worthy of being called winter. We had snow enough one night in February to whiten the ground, but it began to melt as soon as the sun came up and was all gone by noon. Spring has fairly set in now, and the peach trees have long ago unfolded their blossoms, the farmers are all busy putting in their crops and the water has been "turned on" in all the ditches—for you know everything is raised here by irrigation—and your growing crop can have water whenever you think it needs it. The absence of rain, of course, makes some extra work for the farmers, but they get enough extra for what they have to sell to fully compensate them for it, and besides, the dryness of this region is what gives it its chief value and makes it the great sanitarium for consumptives from all parts of the country. And there is no doubt about the fact that people with lung diseases are wonderfully benefited by coming here, and if they come in time they nearly always get well.

W. S. BURKE.

—Mrs. Jeannette Hammond, arrested three weeks ago as an accomplice to Redwine, defaulting cashier at Atlanta, was released by the Federal grand jury.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by W. H. McRobert's Drugstore, Stanford.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a remedy that sell as well or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. Those remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. R. Penny, druggist.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Steadman & Freeman, druggists, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. H. McRobert's, Druggist, Stanford.

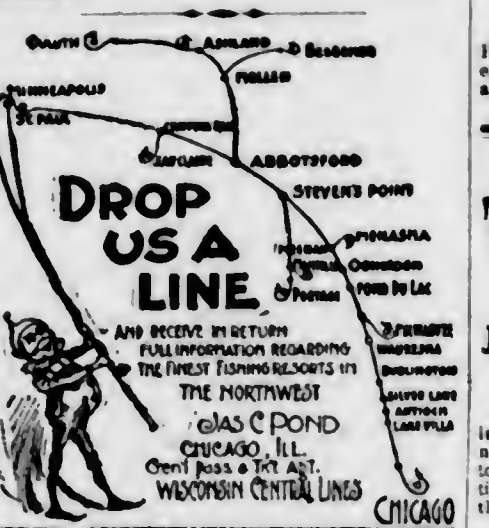

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could not get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her household work. E. H. Johnson, of C. K. Knott & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. H. McRobert's, Druggist, Stanford.
